OREGON RESIDENT PUTS ACADEMICS TO WORK IN MONTANA

MISSOULA, Mont. --

Lake Oswego resident Nathaniel Murphy, a senior at The University of Montana-Missoula, participated in a fall-semester internship program offered through UM's Center for Work-Based Learning.

The center provides opportunities for undergraduate and graduate students to integrate academic theories and principles with practical job experience related to their chosen fields.

Murphy, an environmental studies major, was a media coordinator for the Missoula Urban Demonstration Project. He created a documentary for television about the project and scheduled news releases and interviews. He is a 1999 graduate of Lakeridge High School. His parents are Carrie and Graydon Murphy of Lake Oswego.

UM's Center for Work-Based Learning serves about 2,000 students each year, placing them in internships throughout Montana, the United States and overseas in more than 35 fields of employment. For more information, visit the center's Web site at www.umt.edu/internships.
